Ocean Beach Womans Club Finishes $1700 of Improvements on Property

FENCE PAINTING CLIMAX OF OUTSTANDING YEAR OF IMPROVING CLUBHOUSE

Painting of an attractive picket fence climaxed $1700 worth of improvements during the club year ending this month, on the Ocean Beach Woman's clubhouse. Previously the sidewalk was in bad shape and the grounds were only bare sand. The clubhouse was greatly improved both inside and out. The long list of improvements, in addition to the new cement sidewalk, as reported to The News this week by Mrs. Lloyd N. Davis, president the past year, follows herewith:

Painting of the club-house both inside and out.

New electrical fixtures installed.

New bookcases, drapes and shades installed.

Several hundred dollars worth of shrubbery planted.

Front lawn sown to lawn grass.

Picket fence built all around the property.

Besides the $1700 spent on improvements, $325 was expended on worth while charities, reports Mrs. Davis.

In charge of the outside work was a special committee consisting of Mrs. J. J. Hornung, chairman; and Mmes. C. F. Near, C. A. Baker, Lawrence Krettler, August Dumont, Ella Smith and E. A. Kineman.

A special committee, with Mrs. C. H. Woolley, house committee chairman, was in charge of the improvements inside the building. Assisting her were Mrs. C. A. Baker and Mrs. V. C. Barber.

O. B. Keglerettes to Bowl the Men on Sunday, June 15

(By Phil White)

"Who says," women can't bowl as well as men. Well, we will soon find out, as a match game has been arranged for the Ocean Beach Bowl, Sunday, June 15, 7:30 p. m. The five high average women bowlers of Ocean Beach will play the five men of the same average. The women's team will be captained by Connie Bechtel and the men's by Bert Stratton. Total pins will decide the victors who are to be taken out to dinner.

Bowlerettes went hog wild last week and rolled 10 200-games on the Ocean Beach alleys. Mary Hamilton had her first 200-game and not satisfied with one, shot another. Girls who rolled 200 or over are: Janyce Hall 219, Grace Richmond 203, Bernice Schmidt 200, 205, 210, Gert Wright 203, Mary Hamilton 201, 203, and Phil White 201, 208.

Eight weeks of bowling have seen the last of a tie between the Kings and Queens of the Royal Trio, Kings emerging as victors for the present. They are ahead in the trio with 16 wins and 4 losses, Queens trailing with 15-5. Dukes have 11-9, Princesses 10-10, Duchesses 8-12, Princes 6-14 and Barons 4-16.

MORMON GROUPS MEET FOR LAST TIME UNTIL FALL

This group of young people from the ages of 12 to 21, have just presented four festivals, displaying their Cultural Art work. The festivals given were dance, music, drama and speech. They will hold a social gathering Friday, June 6 (tonight) with a beach party scheduled.

SAIL TO CATALINA

In the motor-sail boat which he built himself over a period of seven years, George Duff, his wife and their oldest son, Edward, of 4758 Long Branch sailed to Catalina island. Leaving Thursday night and returning Sunday night, the Duffs made the 13½-hour trip despite choppy waters and rainy weather. "She handles beautifully!" said Mrs. Duff of her husband's handiwork.

Kiwanis Club Hears Report by Explorer Of Trip to Arctic

An interesting report of his three years of exploration in the Arctic was given Kiwanis Tuesday evening by Capt. Jerome Allen, U. S. N., ret. He was one of seven with Donald B. McMillan on the expedition sponsored by the National Geographic Society from 1913 to 1917. Most of the time was spent on the huge island of Greenland, Allen indicated.

Two Eskimo guides with whom he spent his three years in the far north confirmed to Allen the story that Dr. Cook did fail to reach the North pole.

"There is still much to explore in the far north," said the speaker, "and it cannot be done in detail with airplanes. Dog sleds are still the best way to travel for such detail, and the Eskimos continue to be of great help as guides." The speaker had only praise for the Eskimos, particularly those of north Greenland. He especially mentioned their outstanding honesty. "Without them our expedition would not have achieved its mission," he said. He also mentioned that the "vastness and silence of the Arctic was overpowering."

The speaker was introduced by Glen Cords, program chairman for the evening.

Arnold Morss Jr., manager of the Strand theater, was inducted into membership by Paul Hendrickson.

C. C. Poll Shows Merchants Favor Diagonal Parking

CITY TRAFFIC EXPERT URGES PARALLEL PLAN AT MEETING, HOWEVER

This week's poll of the business men of the Newport Ave. district revealed that the majority of them favor the present diagonal system of parking the cars on Newport Ave. A special Chamber of Commerce committee made the survey, and report of the results as presented at the June meeting held at the Woman's club-house Monday evening showed 31 for diagonal parking, 24 for parallel and three for the diagonal on one side of the street and parallel for the other side.

James Reading, the city's traffic engineer, who was the main speaker at the meeting, however, urged Ocean Beach to adopt the parallel system for Newport, declaring that experience in other parts of the city had shown this to be more satisfactory than the diagonal. Dick Hilmen, chairman of the program committee, introduced the speaker and more than half of the meeting was given over to a serious discussion of the local parking problem.

Several of the business men joined in the discussion, some in favor of the parallel and others in favor of the diagonal plan. The speaker gave assurance that the city administration was glad to learn what is the prevailing opinion regarding the matter in Ocean Beach. One speaker suggested that the opinions of the Ocean Beach resident customers of the local business houses be obtained

(By Mrs. Ralph Follick)

Square Dance Tomorrow

It'll be a big time in the old town tomorrow night, when the P. T. A. throws another of its rollickin' square dancin' parties. For the timid souls who aren't quite sure of all the dances, there will be instruction from 7:30 to 8:30, and the dance proper will continue until about 11 p. m. As usual, the festivities take place in the Recreation Center at Ebers and Santa Monica and everyone is cordially invited to come and join the fun.

Incidentally, the P. T. A. Dance committee is eager to secure a square dance caller and a few musicians. Piano players are assured they won't have to bring their own, since the hall is equipped with a piano. Violin, accordion and guitar players are especially in demand.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Sherwood and son Arthur of 4512 Del Mar Ave. spent last week-end on a camping trip. The Sherwoods made camp in Doane Valley near Palomar. They reported the out-door life was lots of fun.

The day will come when Ocean Beach's Newport Ave. will rank among those who know about such things, as the "Indianapolis Speedway of the West," for June 29 will see the second annual Crackerbox Derby run there between Froude St. and Sunset Cliffs Blvd.

The actual race will culminate weeks of earnest and resourceful labor on the part of dozens of boys between the ages of 11 and 15. They will have worked hard to comply with the rules for the contest, which emphasizes that the car must be entrant-made and driven, and at a cost not to exceed $6.

This second anual derby is, like its predecessor, sponsored by the Ocean Beach Kiwanis club, and is open to all boys between the ages of 11 and 15 (inclusive), who live in the areas of Ocean Beach, Point Loma, Naval Housing, and Frontier Housing projects.

The school was formally opened in September, 1946, and had previously been known as the Mother Goose School, under the directorship of Mrs. Meta Bruce. She operated it as a nursery school. MEET YOUR OCEAN BEACH NEIGHBORS

Arnold J. Morss

(Studio of the Cliffs)

This week we are proud to present a man who manages to find time to actively promote the welfare of his community as well as tend to his duties as an Ocean Beach business man. Our selection for this week's "Meet Your Neighbor" is Arnold J. Morss Sr., of the Bank of America, to whom a great deal of the credit for the success of last night's Ocean Beach beauty contest should go. Mr. Morss is chairman of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce's Community Activities committee, which had charge of the beauty contest, as well as numerous other civic enterprises.

Arnold is one of the few Ocean Beach business men who can boast that he is a native Californian. He was born in Fresno on October 11, 1904. He attended school there and in Oakland, graduating from the Fresno high school. He completed a course in banking, studying through the American Institute of Banking. Starting in with the Bank of America (then called the Bank of Italy) in 1924, Arnold has been with that organization ever since, except for one brief period with another bank. He worked in branches in Fresno and Taft, California, before coming to Ocean Beach as assistant cashier in March, 1945.

Mr. Morss has cut quite a swathe in local civic and community affairs, and now is chairman of the Boy Scouts of the North Shore District, a member of the board of directors of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce, the board of directors of the Ocean Beach Kiwanis club, president of the Holy Name Society of the Sacred Heart church, member of the Kiwanis club public affairs committee, and a member of the Community Center recreational committee, in addition to his chairmanship of the Community Activities committee.

He and Mrs. Morss (the former Ruth Jeffries of Fresno) and their two sons, Arnold Jr., manager of the Strand Theater, and Richard, a sophomore at Point Loma High, live in the home they built in 1945 at 4742 Orchard Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Morss recently visited their mothers, both of whom still live in Fresno.

If Arnold should happen to catch a few spare moments between his banking and his community activities, you would probably find him reading or working in his garden.

bridge unless and until a contrary legal opinion is made by the proper official authority. Since the bridge is "suspended over deep water spear fishing from that bridge is not against the new law," Tosh was given to understand by the district attorney. Tosh reports that though the law does prohibit spearing fish in shallow water, the water under the bridge is not deemed to be shallow water. He said further, however, that the law "does prohibit spear fishing from a boat unless the fishermen are supplied with goggles nad rubber fins and the spearing is done under the water."

The district atorney asked, however, that all the fishermen who desire to spear fish make sure they have the necessary fishing licenses.

Tosh also obtained assurance from Tom Smith, the fish and game warden, that the boys will not be bothered. Tosh quoted Smith as stating that "Tell the boys that they will not be bothered at least until a contrary ruling regarding the new law is made." He informed Tosh that the only arrests he had made were of fishermen not having fishing licenses and that the arrests made were not for spear fishing.

Tosh also had conference with Senator Fred Kraft Sunday, while the latter was home from Sacramento, at which the senator also said that there was an error in the report that spear fishing from the Bay bridge was prohibited by the new law.

They had elected Mrs. Fred Kirkman new president to replace Mrs. George Stevens, vice-president Mrs. John Herman to replace Mrs. Vernon Ewers, secretary Mrs. John Brennan to replace Mrs. Harry Madison, treasurer Mrs. Madelaine Key to replace Mrs. Edward Zender, and historian Mrs. Walter Schaubel to replace Mrs. William Creason.

Mrs. Kirkman is a former long time resident of Ocean Beach and Mrs. Brennan is now a resident here.

After their dinner and installation, the ladies proceeded to the Orpheum Theatre, where they saw Van Johnson's picture, "High Barbaree," which they had selected with typical femininity.

Besides the new and outgoing officers, the meeting was attended by Mrs. William Kaiser, Mrs. Jack McClellan, Mrs. Merlin Reynolds and Mrs. George Coombs.

The club has made tentative plans for a week-end party at Laguna Beach, but as yet the details of the outing have not been arranged.

Mrs. W. Russell, Now Living in Oregon, Entertained Monday

(By Marian Krettler)

Monday evening Mrs. Harold Depew Jr. entertained members of the Junior Woman's club executive board, honoring Mrs. Winston Russell, a former board member and now a resident of Cottage Grove, Oregon.

Mrs. Russell has been in town on a brief visit with parents and friends, and expected to fly home with her two children today. Lucille, as she is known to her intimates, is experiencing, for the first time, life on an Oregon farm, and she loves it. Far from complaining about remoteness from neighbors and the problems of repairing the huge old house inherited from her grandmother, Lucille tells of the patch planted to garden "truck" and flourishing mightily, and of the good orchard making the air fragrant with spring blossoms and promising a fine crop of fruits of various kinds.

Winston Russell, employed by the Texaco Co., tried in his spare time to repair the unjointed doors.

Hardly were they brought to locking stage when it was found that the house needed leveling by professionals, and once that job was completed the doors were again out of kilter.

Providence brought a "hired man" to the Russell door. Forti-

Lawana Malcolm and Marion Belt Junior Married on May 30

With Rev. Paul C. Biesemeyer officiating, Miss Lawana Malcolm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Malcolm of 4795 Voltaire St., and Marion L. Belt Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion L. Belt of 4575 Santa Monica Ave., were joined in marriage last Friday afternoon at Point Loma Methodist church.

Dressed in a sand colored suit, with accessories in dark brown and wearing an unusual corsage of dark gladioli, the bride was attended by her matron of honor, Mrs. Alan Daun of West Point Loma Blvd., who wore a gray suit.

The groom was attended by his brother, Orville, who served as best man at the ceremony.

The bride's brother Raymond, a student at San Diego State College acted as usher. He lives at Aztec Terrace on the State College campus.

At the church, which was decorated for the occasion with a floral display of gladioli and Shasta daisies, the double ring ceremony was preceded by the solo, "I Love You Truly," sung by Mrs. William Madigan Jr., who was accompanied at the piano by the groom's 10-year-old sister, Faith.

Following a reception, held in the chapel of the church, the wedding party and relatives of the principals enjoyed a buffet lunch at the new home of the couple. The groom, a plastering contractor, had recently built the residence with the help of his uncles and this was the first meal served in the new home, located at 4574 Cape May Ave.

The wedding was attended by the parents of both the bride and groom, the bride's mother dressed in a gray suit with pink accessories, and her father giving her in marriage. The groom's mother wore an aqua suit with white accessories.

Guests included Mrs. Thomas Barnes of Kansas City, Kan., and the bride's aunt, Mrs. George Tyler of Fullerton, Calif.

The young couple left shortly after the buffet luncheon for a brief wedding trip to Idyllwild, Calif., where they enjoyed the hunting and fishing which that resort affords.

Army air forces as a gunnery sergeant during the war. Since his return from service he has been engaged as a plastering contractor.

Ruth Engelhardt Weds Edgar Woods At Church May 31

White gladioli, marconi and pink larkspur lent beauty to the Point Loma Methodist church last Saturday, May 31, at a 7 p. m. candlelighted, double ring wedding ceremony at which Ruth Engelhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Engelhardt of 1945 Froude St., and Edgar V. Woods, son of Edgar Woods of 4330 Temecula St., exchanged vows. The Rev. Paul Biesemeyer read the service and Ann Carmody Madigan sang the nuptial songs.

The bride, whose father gave her away, wore a gown of white with a satin bodice over a skirt of brocade silk under a double layer of net. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a heart shaped tiara tipped with seed pearls. She carried a white gardenia shower bouquet. In attendance was Merle Goldman of San Diego in a peach net gown over taffeta. She carried a dainty nosegay made up of white sweetpeas and pink carnations. Ralph Morgan of Ocean Beach was the best man. The aisle cloth, which ran from the church door to the rostrum, was arranged by Fred Edwards as well as the floral decoration all of which came from Jo's Flower shop. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards also had arranged two large bouquets of ferns garlanded with white Estereeds with white satin bows which were on either side of the rostrum.

The reception after the ceremony was held at the bride's home with her mother receiving in an aqua colored gown set off by a superb white orchid with a green heart. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Woods of Santa Monica. The couple left immediately for a two-week honeymoon at Lake Arrowhead.

Both the bride and the groom attended Ocean Beach Elementary school and Point Loma high school after which, she attended Woodbury college in Los Angeles and he San Diego State college. The groom is now attending Kelsey Jennings business school after serving for three and a half years in the U. S. Navy. The couple will live on Ann Arbor St. in Aztec village after their return from the honeymoon.

Letters to the Editor

May 31, 1947.

Editor, Ocean Beach News
San Diego 7, California.
Dear Sir:

There was recently a law passed in the State of California, prohibiting the spearing of fish from piers and boats. This law states that no one may spear fish from piers or boats and the only spearing of fish that may be done is when a person is completely submerged under the surface of the water.

This law will stop spearing off the Mission Bay bridge which takes up many of the idle hours of boys in the junior and senior high schools of this district. There are also a number of young men such as myself who depend on a fish or so a week to ease the high cost of food for our families.

These young boys of junior and senior high school age are using up their idle hours at this clean and healthy sport and are keeping themselves out of trouble and possibly out of the juvenile courts.

If this law is put into effect. it would take about $25 worth of equipment for a person to be able to spear under water. Very few if any of these boys could afford this amount.

Senator Fred Kraft has suggested that a petition be drawn up with at least 500 signatures of registered voters. These petitions may be found at the J & B Sporting Goods store on Newport and also at the Shell Service station, corner of Voltaire and Sunset Cliffs Blvd. in Ocean Beach.

An interested citizen.
WM. E. SAYLES.

Dear Sirs:

Don't you believe the program at the local community center is going cart before the horse? Wouldn't it be best to have the playground or recreational facilities completed before the buildings and other more expensive developments, in order to enable the youths and others who enjoy sports to be able to participate in them?

Also it remains a fact that us older residents wish to play or enjoy tennis, handball, etc., sports which only take two persons to compete. It's been said that this country is becoming a nation of onlookers, and I believe this is a typical program to bring about even more onlooking. Let's be getting the sports program going instead of the social.

TEEN CHATTER

(By Alyce Rosa)

Howdy! This is the beachcomber coming to you once again with a once-over coverage of all that's brisk on the Ocean Beach front. Glancing over the calendar for seniors at Point Loma high school we see that they're going to be mighty busy guys 'n gals! This week, June 2-6, was set aside for final exams—fun! On June 5 senior girls were hostesses at the traditional tea honoring senior mothers. The girls' gym (from 3 till 5) was the scene of the enjoyable affair. Baby-oil, bathing suits et al will be the order of the day come June 11—'tis senior ditch day, natch! Hear tell that lucky Lomans will have the exclusive use of the bee-yootiful pool that day. Vespers are set for June 15 at 4 p. m. in the Central Christian church (9th and F). The prom is to be the 17th in the Crown room of the Hotel Del Coronado. June 18 at 1 o'clock will see the tired seniors (it's the day after the prom) at the Greek Bowl, on Point Loma, rehearsing for the big moment—June 19 at 4 p. m.—commencement!

A semiannual event which recently attracted a great number of local 'teensters' was the recent city-wide R. O. T. C. Regimental ball presented at San Diego high school. The music of Kenny O'Neal's orchestra was featured and the floor show was emceed by former R. O. T. C. colonel, Bud Johnson, now serving with the army. Bud put cadet officers through some rugged paces ("Worse than field day or maneuvers" was the unanimous opinion of the "entertainers")—f'r example Loman Linden Raney turned cosmetologist and applied a professional make-up job to a cadet officer from La Jolla, who in turn made Lindy beautiful. For the most professional job "Mlle. Raney" was awarded a jeep—which was, alas, pocket size! Another Loman who participated in the entertainment was Gerald Quick, who finished second in a pie-eating contest—bet it'll be a long time before Gerry will want to taste pineapple cream pie again! Petite Joan Curtis was elected Point Loma's queen by the cadets. Attending with steady Glen Boyd, "her majesty" chose a breath-taking white strapless—with elbow length gloves to match—just the thing to set off her blonde beauty and her enviable tan! Other couples on hand at this trez-merry open-bid affair included: Ed Shea-Pat Ruud, Dave Westerfield-Pat Sharpe, George Carter-Bev Crume, Jim Piburn-Marian Mishler and Jim Boxburger-Colleen Burns.

"Better than ever!" was the opinion recently expressed by music lovers who attended the annual spring concert presented by the music department at Point Loma high school. Large audiences greeted the musicians at both performances last week, Wednesday and Thursday. Spotlights and spring flowers were the only setting for the musicians as they presented their varied program. Point Loma's string orchestra, assisted by members of the string orchestra of Dana Junior high school, opened the program playing "Overture in G" followed by "Mummers" and "Jaz Legato." A highlight of the evening was a two piano team, Nancy Peterson first piano and Lois Stephenson second piano, who presented "Fantasie Impromptu" and Griege's "Concerto in A Minor." Also on the program were the Girls Glee, Boys Ensemble, Girls Ensemble, choir and a solo by mezzo-soprano Jean Wright, accompanied by Lois Stephenson.

Our once-over of the steady scene dins the info that tiny Peggy O'Neal (her brother is the Kenny O'Neal) has been wearing Gordon Thompson's gold nugget football (championship award) for almost one month now. Other steady-goers are Joe Wiggins-Thelma Fintzelberg and Jimmy Hanna-Delores Strep. Jim Piburn-Marian Mishler and Roby Bowman-Mary Anne Harris seem to have a lot in common also!

Didja Know Department! Have you heard that Manuel Silva was recently crowned King Neptune at the Junior Prom ("Undercurrent") presented at Point Loma High? "Poppy" Wilson, his steady-gal was his queen! Did you know that Carolyn "Penny" Pendleton's 'man' (Alden Erikson) recently drove all the way from San Mateo, Calif. to get a glimpse of the gal! Included in the gay week-end was a trek to Julian for an all-day picnic with Cliff Peterson and Caryl Buell!

Club Chatter

From the vivacious Zettz comes word of their traditional after-prom set for June 17 at Virginia Buchanan's . . . all graduates are invited! Another farewell frolic is "Aloha Oe" to be hostessed by La Cheres and Trez-N on June 19 following commencement. President Shirley Beck was recently elected to the high-command of Prims by her "sisters." Serving with her will be vice-president, Dorothy Simcox; secretary, Gloria Kelly; treasurer, Jackie Blackman; publicity, Betsy Anderson; historian, "Tootsie" Padgitt; and program chairman, Beverly Crume. It was barbecue fun for cute Las Gatas recently at the home of Nagene Urqhuart. Gals invited dates and reported a dingin' time.

On Friday evening the Kampus Katz entertained the Satans at a joint meeting held in the outdoor playground of June Belloff's home. A wiener roast, games and dancing were enjoyed by about 40 guests.

Well, chillun, once again it's time to say 'by now' and remind you-all that anyone who does anything "newsy" should call B-5745!

(Editor's Note—Most of the teenage social clubs, such as Jades, Kampus Katz, La Chere, Le Tiki, news for TEEN CHATTER call Prims, Trez-N, Zettz, J. O., Quiggs, Oaks, and Rebels, which appear in TEEN CHATTER are not sponsored or supervised by the school authorities. They are social in nature and operate outside of school under their own informal by-laws).

The former Eva Smith, now Mrs. W. W. Sugg, and a resident of Los Angeles, returned to her Ocean Beach home for a week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith of 4869 Santa Monica Ave. With her were her husband, W. W. Sugg, their daughter, Virginia Green, and their baby "Mike." The four spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

DEATH CALLS H. A. HOWARD OF OCEAN BEACH, AGED 61

Henry A. Howard, for five years a resident of Ocean Beach, where he lived at 4434 Brindisi St., died suddenly last week, presumably of a heart attack. He was 61 years old.

Coming here five years ago from Little Rock, Ark., where he was born on August 3, 1885, he settled in Ocean Beach, and was employed by Consolidated Aircraft Company as a custodian. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma Howard, a daughter Mrs. Verna Neuwirth and two sons Birlee H. and J. R. Howard, all of Ocean Beach.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock preceding burial in Mt. Hope cemetery. Beardsley's Funeral Home was in charge.

DICKENSONS ARRIVE

Miss Catherine Dickenson and her mother, Mrs. C. M. Dickenson, arrived in Ocean Beach from Arkansas last week. It was their second visit. Miss Dickenson, a certified teacher of the Louise Robyn System of Musical Training for Children, has been teaching for a number of years in the schools of Paragould, Ark.

Tom Sturak Wins First In Legion Auxiliary District Essay Contest

LEGION AUXILIARY UNIT TO PRESENT HIM CASH AND MEDAL NEXT MONTH

(By Myrtle Orrick)

The Clyde A. Wright Unit 433, American Legion Auxiliary, is proud to announce that a Point Loma high school student won first prize in the 22nd district, comprising all high schools from Laguna Beach to Calexico in Imperial Valley. The winner is Tom Sturak, 11th grade student, and at the final assembly in June Ocean Beach unit will present him with a cash award from the unit and also with the medal he won for first prize money of the district.

Second prize in the essay contest in Point Loma was won by Bess Hawkins who will also receive a gift from the local unit.

Sturak's prize winning essay follows:

America's Contribution for a Permanent Peace

Since the dawning of this turbulent century when the United States was first recognized as a world power in its own right, it has been the source of many of the noblest and sincerest contributions to a permanent peace. Although within this time the two greatest wars ever to ravage this globe have been fought, America has continued to realize the great importance of a system by which nations might submit their differences to peaceful arbitration.

The fruits of the labor of the American delegates at the Hague conference of 1899, a court of arbitration was the forefather of all such designs and the United States itself was the first to submit a case for peaceful settlement. This court effectively handled the problems which were brought before it but it did not have the power to force nations to submit their differences to arbitration. Therefore it had to rely upon a government such as the United States to press peaceful settlements, under the imperialistic guidance of Theodore Roosevelt. America did just that. Through his swift and imposing decisions, as in the case of Venezuela in 1902 possible and highly probable warfare was averted. His most outstanding work in establishing international peace were his efforts in bringing together envoys from Russia and Japan, and as a result a peace treaty was successfully drawn up ending the Russo-Japanese war. This deed brought him the honor of being the first American to receive the Nobel Peace prize in 1904.

The period of peace which followed was merely the lull before the storm. President Woodrow Wilson tried in vain to avert the war then brewing on the old continent. Following the Armistice of "the war to end all wars," Wilson again took the helm of the ship of peace and himself represented the United States at the "big 4" peace conference. As a result of his great and difficult work a League of Nations was organized which was the final materialization of his fervent desire for an organization to maintain world peace. Ironically his own nation failed to recognize the new league's merits and rejected its treaty.

Such men as C. G. Dawes and F. B. Kellogg did realize the benefits of such a peace and made great strides in supporting the League by advocating the outlawing of war and the stabilization of such nations as Germany, whose condition was one which could and did foster new international strife. The League, however, found its power waning and with the withdrawal of membership by Germany and Japan came the solemn realization that the seeds of World War II were trees of reality.

Now, as before, America is again leading a war-torn world in attempting to establish a state of everlasting tranquility and brotherhood. Through able statesmen such as Cordell Hull and Edward Stetinius a United Nations organization became a reality, with its birth and development taking place on American soil. Fearing a repetition of Hitler's rise we are again attemping to stabilize and lift, economically and socially, the desolate and confused nations which are potential prey of mascent Fascism and Communism. This purpose is being achieved by means of such American inspired institutions as U. N. R. A. and the world bank.

"Let us hope that these contributions which have and will arise from the trials and tribulations of our present day peace makers will be accepted with more consideration and thought of the future. May these contributions be revised and collaborated into one great plan of peace, for it was once written of America; 'Arise to the place thou art given to fill, and lead the world triumph of peace and good will.'" ent quarters are entirely inadequate, plans have been drawn for the erection of a new structure to be built soon as the necessary funds are made available. The school is under the auspices of Trinity Episcopal church. Pupils are not required to come from Episcopal homes, however, in fact 11 communions are represented and a few do not have any church affiliation. The school's object is to give each and every child adequate attention, a cultural background, and all of this in a Christian atmosphere in order to give them a security which so many children lack. One of the advantages of the school is that a child may start at the age of 3 in the nursery class and entrance to the kindergarten and first grade is dependent only on ability not age.

At present there are five teachers full time and two part time, Mrs. Meta W. Bruce, Mrs. Donald Gillman, Mrs. Alice Douse, Miss Meta Bruce, Mrs. S. Werner, Mrs. P. Wilkevich and Mrs. V. Searcy. Fr. Harris, the dean, conducts the services for the school and religious education.

The drive to raise the necessary funds has been opened and the first $100 has been given. The board hopes the public and people of the community will aid in this wholesome venture of Christian education. The sending of 7000 letters to every Episcopal church in the United States is now in the process of preparation. The idea is to have each church subscribe $1 a week. toward the building of the school and after the completion of St. Stephen's to continue the fund and build other schools throughout the country. Twentythousand dollars is our present goal ,in order that the building can be begun immediately, for the opening of the fall semester in new quarters.

J. F. Liptich and his family of 4419 Niagara have been entertaining Mr. Liptich's father John Liptich and brother Anthony of Seattle, Wash. on their two-week visit to Ocean Beach. During the stay of these relatives, Mr. Liptich "showed them the town," also provided festivities which included a rollicking beach party, at which a second brother, Frank Liptich, also was present.

fied by a hot meal, he set about chopping wood for the stoves and ended up by spading the garden. Now Tom is a permanent fixture at the Russell home, doing the chores and caring for "Buzz," the small daughter, when the family goes out for an evening.

"He has no family nor home," explained Lucille, "and we just make him one with us, so he seems perfectly happy with three meals a day and small monthly pay."

There is no telephone in the Russell home. It seems that in that area one has to purchase a share of telephone stock and own necessary poles and wires for installation, which constitutes a problem. The nearest neighbor is almost a mile down the road. Accompanied by "Buzz," Lucille sometimes walks down for a visit. But 21 hot meals weekly and other family duties keep her busy, and she is finding new peace and adjustment in getting down to digging in the productive earth, and caring for the chickens and the lamb they purchased. The latter was originally intended for the family table, but Lucille thinks they are growing too attached to the animal for that.

No cow as yet; that may come later. But Lucille is learning a lot about chickens. It appears that hens wean their broods and want to return to laying, with disaster to the chicks if they refuse separation from mama. One such ambitious hen was confined to a convenient outhouse, but when she deposited her egg in a most unsuitable spot, was summarily removed therefrom.

Judging from the response from her listeners, Lucille should write a book about her experiences. It should compare favorably with "The Egg and I."

Present at Mrs. Depew's impromptu party were Mmes. Ormal Sprungman, Warren Fox, Robert McKnight, Fred Gentles, Philip Sjoberg, James Stevens, Lawrence Tokar, Lawrence Krettler (Junior adviser), and Mary Jane Brazell, sister of the hostess.

Woman's Club to Hold Installation Thursday Afternoon

Installation of the new officers will feature the Thursday afternoon, June 12, meeting of the Ocean Beach Woman's club, the final meeting of the current club year, Mrs. Lloyd N. Davis, retiring president, announced this week. Mrs. Louis P. Zill, the new president of the county women's clubs federation, will be installing officer.

Also on the program are convention reports. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. C. W. Early and Mrs. J. P. Miller will report on the recent state convention at Coronado and Mrs. S. M. Kyde on the May 28 district convention at Ontario.

Tea hostesses will be Mrs. Fred T. Hiltz, chairman, assisted by Mmes. D. S. Marshall, C. O. Woodland and C. H. Woolley Door hostesses will be Mrs. C. A. Baker and Mrs. C. W. Varney. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. B. H. Nielsen, the new club president, will pour.

To Attend County Meeting

Mmes. Early, Davis, A. L. Johnston, Kyde, F. E. Levin, Miller, Nielsen and F. L. Swezey plan to attend the June meeting of the county federation to be held in the First Presbyterian church, 320 Date St., Saturday. Mrs. Nielsen as the new local club president will be presented and Mrs. Davis will be installed as corresponding secretary of the federation.

Mrs. Early's appointment as county federation chairman of the natural resources committee and Mrs. Miller's appointment as chairman of the federation's cancer control committee are expected to be confirmed at Saturday's meeting.

"VIRGIL'S VIEWS"

Ever notice how silly grocery ads read? They always go something this this: "GREEN BEANS" . . . then on the next line in little type it says, "extra fancy, Kentucky Wonder." Or "POTATOES, White Rose, No. 1" . . . or "CANTALOUPES, Imperial Valley." Everything backwards, not to mention that the descriptions are not very appetizing. For instance, "extra fancy beans" doesn't make your mouth water now, does it. How fancy is extra fancy anyway? And Kentucky Wonder may mean something to the farmer or gardener, but to us it only conjurs up the picture of a Kentucky colonel, sitting in p o p - e y e d amazement over something or other. And what the deuce is a No. 1 potato? Has anybody here ever seen a No. 2 potato? Personally, we'd like to. Sorry to say, Virgil's ads are no different, except that over in the price column the numbers are lower than in other grocery ads. But that doesn't do his wonderul produce justice.

Now it seems to us, that a grocery ad should be written more like this: The top line should say "fat, crisp, stringless" . . . then "Green Beans for 6c lb." That would give you some idea of how delicious they are as well as how cheap. Or how about "clean, solid, tasty POTATOES, 10 lbs. 19c" or "firm, d e l e c t a b l e CANTALOUPES, 6c lb." 'Course, even at their best, grocery ads, on the whole, are pretty boring, but Virgil's are exciting because of those low prices.

And speaking of thrills, winning $50 may not be in the same class with jumping off the Brooklyn bridge, but personally, we'll take it anytime. And so will Mrs. Rose Wyman of 2060 Sunset Cliffs, who managed to do just that last Saturday night at Virgil's. Couple of weeks ago, Mrs. Wyman, who swears she never won a prize before in her life, won a $5 grocery order, but so far, your reporter hasn't been able to discover the secret of her luck. When we do, we'll be sure to let you in on it, 'cause we're not eligible for all this stuff anyway.

Mrs. Bryan Willoughby of 4875 Voltaire won that swanky 6-tube table model radio from the Firestone Store last Saturday night, but whoever won the box of Swift's cleanser and baby foods foods got away slick and clean. Nobody knows whoodunit. Mrs. Blanche Grove got a box of Vitamin C . . . oranges, that is, and R. M. Robins and Mrs. Niederhut each won $5 grocery orders, which would be equal to twice as much in any other store, 'cause Virgil's prices are so low.

Last Saturday night was confetti night at Virgil's. That is everybody tore up all their tickets —except of course, the winners. 'Cause starting last Sunday, Virgil is giving away a new series of tickets, which can win $50, a set of auto seat covers (courtesy of Ocean Beach Auto Trim Shop), grocery orders and a box of bananas next Saturday. So, stop in at Virgil's to pick up some tickets, and while there take advantage of his low prices and grab some grub.

Lots of people are shopping at Virgil's these days, and sometimes the lines behind the check stands get pretty long. But if you'll take our advice you'll pick the line where Ethel is checking out. You can tell Ethel . . . she's the one with loads of personality, who can punch that cash register with an eight-to-the-bar rhythm and always wears a smile. What's more, when she packs your box for that speedy free delivery, she never smashes your bread under a can of apricots or puts those tender tomatoes under a bottle of vinegar.

She keeps that schoolgirl figure by climbing the Niagara Ave. hill every day to her home, where she keeps house for her husband, a Ryan-man. And that healthy tan is acquired by spending her off hours in her garden.

She's been at Virgil's longer than anyone else except Eddie, and it's interesting to try to catch her in a wrong price, but we're warning you, it's impossible. She knows 'em all by heart. So, if you're in a hurry to get out of the store (though why anyone should want to hurry out of Virgil's is beyond us), be sure to get in the line behind Ethel's register. She's a living example of the friendly, speedy, accurate service you get at Virgil's . . . she's the girl with the SMILE.—Adv.

FRED BARNERS AND COY BARNERS ENTERTAIN SIMULTANEOUSLY MAY 30

The two Barner families made news Memorial Day by entertaining simultaneously at their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barner hosted a group of 25 in their home at 4452 Muir Ave., in joint celebration of Mr. Barner's birthday and the national holiday. The buffet supper took place at six in the evening, and provided gracious opportunity or an old-fashioned get-together among a large group of the Barners' friends and family. Guests even played the family phonograph, in their determination to pay proper homage to Mr. Barner on his birthday.

At the same time, just a few blocks away, Mr. and Mrs. Coy E. Barner were also entertaining, with a lawn party for eight friends and relatives at their home, 4628 Niagara Ave. Their guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lawrence of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Cooke of El Centro, Mrs. Emma Boone of El Centro, Oscar Musgraves of El Centro, Charles Carter, who makes his home with the Barners, and Mrs. Laura Simmons of San Diego. This group enjoyed an afternoon outdoors, where Mrs. Barner had set up tables for the refreshments, and took a few snapshots for their respective albums. Mrs. Coy E. Barner reports that she did find time to slip away for a few minutes to look in on her sister-in-law's party.

Altar Society to Sponsor Play-Nite For Tuesday Eve

The Altar Society of Sacred Heart church in Ocean Beach made plans for two forthcoming social events, when it met Monday evening in the parish hall for its regular monthly affair. First, Mrs. Bruce Engman and Mrs. I. A. Hegerle volunteered their services for the month of June as a Sacristy committee.

Then, in order to raise funds for payment of the church obligations, an evening of games was planned for June 10, next Tuesday. Door prizes and other prizes will be offoered, and the public is cordially invited. Refreshments also will be served. This event will also take place at the parish hall, starting at 7:30 p. m.

And to make June a truly memorable month this year, a harbor cruise, to last two hours and make a complete tour of San Diego Bay on Sunday, June 22, at 2 p. m. was planned. The boat will leave the B r o a d w a y pier in San Diego, and the public is invited along here, too. City Favors Fishing Pier

Secretary Shaw read a letter from Mayor Harley Knox, in which the mayor again expressed the idea that both he and the council want to see the Del Monte Ave. fishing pier completed. Knox stated that the council had instructed City Manager Fred Rhodes to obtain data on the possible cost of the structure, to the end that construction can proceed soon as the money and materials are available.

Reports were given at the meeting by several of the committees, including the fishing pier, the community activities and beach improvement.

TWO YOUNG ELLER BOYS PLAN TRIP TO KANSAS

Marvin and Duane Eller, sons of Mrs. Susie Eller of 4736 Niagara, are itching for school to be out, and it's understandable, when you take into account the fact that just as soon as it is, the two boys, 8 years old and 10½, respectively, will set out on a 1500 mile bus journey all by themselves. The youthful tourists are scheduled to spend their summer vacation with their father in Thylettsburg, Kan., not far from the city of Topeka. A real old-fashioned vacation is in store for the lads, who received a letter from their father Wednesday, in which he told them of the pony he had obtained for them. The letter also thrilled them with his suggestions of swimming and fishing as recreation for the long lazy midwestern days ahead. Before the young Ellers leave on their trip, their mother is tentatively planning a beach party as a suitable send-off.

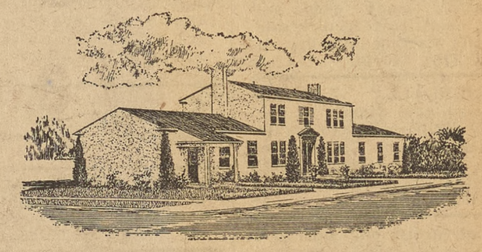

Ina McBurnie of 5076 Muir Ave. left last week for Wyoming on a business trip. She plans to be gone about two months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sibbet of 4776 Pescadero were guests at a party given in Pacific Beach Sunday, June 1. The occasion was a celebration of the birthday of George Leonard, brother of Mrs. Sibbet.
